Griffith's "Dream Street" in Second, Final Week, at Franklin; His First Film Adds Novel Reel

Here's Gypsy Fair, light-footed, gay-hearted, brave little creature who danced while a mad crowd fought to get out of a burning theater.

"Dream Street," like all of D. W. Griffith's special productions, tells an unusual story in a way which only the master producer can tell. It is the story of a girl who is the only one of the big crowd of "Dream Street" who is held only until next Friday night, and is today starting its second and final week.

REEL IS NOVELTY. Added to the bill, by way of showing the progress which pictures have made in the past twelve years, is Griffith's first production, "Her Noble Sacrifice," in which Mary Pickford, Florence Lawrence, Owen Moore, Mack Sennett, Flora Finch and many other notables appear.

ALL STAR CAST. Pretty Carol Dempster, one of the

of this great leader," Green declared, "his organization had made wonderful progress that speaks for itself. Through the present industrial depression, under his leadership, the United Mine Workers have retained its wage scale and no recession made."

Defending the action of the miners' chief in "bowing to the government" in the coal mine strike of 1919, Green declared that Lewis had shown "courage, wisdom and judgment" in meeting this crisis. If we had opposed the government, that government would have run over our union, and instead of being here today as proud delegates, there would be only a remnant of our organization left.

"It requires moral courage to meet such a crisis, and make a decision, though the heart rebels against the force that carries you on. I shall give the name of a candidate—you know him and his peculiar qualifications—a man who has been tried and never found wanting," Green, formally placing Lewis' name in nomination.

Only two of the largest organizations cast solid votes for Lewis, the Machinists' union and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters. The miners' delegations split their vote, giving Gompers 1596 and Lewis 2132, Lewis declining to vote the 533 votes he held.

The railroad organizations, which had been claimed almost solid by Lewis supporters, split their vote between the two largest unions—the electrical workers and the railway Carmen—casting their entire vote for Gompers.

ACTION MARKED BY SHOUTS AND JEERS.

Almost riotous scenes marked both actions of the convention, which sustained the action of the executive council in severing relations with the European labor movement and in condemning the Russian soviet government. Defenders of both the International Federation and the American Federation of Labor were subjected to shouting and rattling of chairs, shouts and jeers and by other means.

"President Gompers had to be continually calling for order in his efforts to keep the proceedings in progress. When he put the Russian question to vote he was charged with 'machine rule' because he declined to permit delegates to speak in defense of the soviet government."

D. S. Smart of Chicago withdrew his accusation of "rag rule" when President Gompers threatened him with preferment of charges.

"This question was put to a vote," said Gompers, "and it was almost unanimously carried. This contention has been open for this not machine rule, but it is the rule of the convention of the American Federation of Labor."

RELATIONS SEVERED WITH INTERNATIONAL. The debate on the report of the International relations committee which sustained the action of the executive council in severing relations with the International was long and stormy. Delegates of the Machinists' Union and the International Ladies' Garment Workers condemned the action of the union and pleaded with the convention to direct these officials immediately to bring about re-affiliation with the European movement.

President Gompers, who with the council, was charged with withholding the facts in this matter from the rank and file of the membership and with "giving only one side of the question to the public," made no reply, as the convention overwhelmingly supported their action.

After the report of the committee sustained the findings of the council that the policies and principles of the International were "revolutionary," it charged that the clause in the international constitution providing for decisions on questions by majority vote destroyed the national autonomy of the American Federation and of those "nations that vote in the minority."

WILL NOT SUBMIT TO OUTSIDE DICTATION.

"American labor cannot and will not submit to dictation from without," added the report. "It must and will determine its own course."

In conclusion the committee recommended that the executive council continue its negotiations in an effort to have the International amend its laws so that the American Federation may have the opportunity of affiliating at the earliest possible date.

In adopting the report on the Pan-American Federation, the convention declared that it "has from the first been the ardent champion of freedom for the Mexican people," and expressed gratification that "our hopes are finding fruition," though "mind and soul of the greed which still seeks satisfaction in the rich resources of Mexico."

It is not going beyond the bounds of good citizenship to express here the hope that relations between our government and the Mexican government soon may be re-established on a basis of honor and respect," the report continues.

It concludes with the belief that there should be closer contact between the workers of the United States and Mexico, and voted an interchange of fraternal delegates.

The convention voted down a constitutional amendment designed to give woman "equal rights and privileges of membership in the union of their trade or industry." All affiliated unions, however, were urged to discriminate against the woman wage earner and admit her to membership.

Lewis Is Content With Big Vote Cast

DENVER, June 25.—"I have tried to conduct myself in such a manner as to get the good will and esteem of that part of the American Federation of Labor that believes in my leadership," said John L. Lewis, following his defeat in the A. F. of L. convention today. "I have used no dishonorable methods. I have nothing but respect for those who opposed me. I appreciate the efforts of those who gave me their support."

"I was not the candidate of William Randolph Hearst. I don't know him or never saw him or anyone who may have represented him. I know nothing of the trouble between him and Mr. Gompers."

"However, I do know something of the Hearst interest brooking the miners' strike in the Black Hills, and a union miner is not welcome in the Black Hills today."

Lewis attacked a Denver paper, which Lewis said opposed his candidacy.

"But of what avail are these things? I am content with the vote. I am more content with the policy toward progressive measures expressed by this convention."

Alliance With Japan Opposed By British Paper

Favors Friendly Agreement to Which U. S. Would Be Party.

BY UNITED PRESS. TOKYO, June 25.—Japan may take the initiative and propose a British-American-Japanese balance of power in armaments on the Pacific it was stated here today on good authority.

LONDON, June 25.—The Manchester Guardian, which is an opponent of the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, contends in an editorial today that the original motive of the alliance, which was a protective measure against Germany and Russia, has disappeared. It asked if a military alliance was necessary to insure "the open door" in China and the security of Great Britain's dominions in the east, and if such an alliance was possible without turning the edge of it against the United States.

No saving clause in the renewed alliance that Great Britain under no circumstances would be involved in hostilities with the United States could suffice, the newspaper continued, to neutralize the unfortunate effect such an exclusive alliance would have on Anglo-American relations. It urged it was far better for Japan and Great Britain to conclude no exclusive alliance, but a friendly agreement to which the United States would be a party. Finally, the Guardian advocated the extent of the limitations of naval armaments to Japan, whose strong naval and commercial position in the east was threatened by nobody.

Destroyer Reported in Collision With Vessel

SAN DIEGO, June 25.—The U. S. destroyer Talbot collided with the steamer Willard off San Pedro early on the morning of June 21, according to an official statement issued at the Eleventh Naval District headquarters at North Island today. No further details were available.

VETERAN LABOR LEADER HAS HAD ACTIVE CAREER

Head of Federation Since '81 With Exception of One Term.

DENVER, June 25.—The history of Samuel Gompers is largely the history of organized labor. Since 1881, with the exception of one term, he has been president of the A. F. of L., which he was largely instrumental in organizing. Friends of the veteran labor leader say he is the most active man in the United States, despite his 71 years. He traveled an average of 100 miles a day during 1920, one trip being made by airplane to keep an engagement. Hardly a meal is eaten without a conference going on some day, and at times he has dictated statements as he rode. During the past year he has written four books and 50 pamphlets. Another book is in the hands of his publishers.

Throughout the war he was active in preventing strikes. In war work twice he visited Europe, making speeches in behalf of the war and participating in the peace conference. The slogan "no peace without a victory" is credited to Gompers. He was chairman of the labor commission of the national council of defense during the war, president of the American Alliance for labor and democracy, and chairman of the commission of international labor at the peace conference.

In addition to his administrative work as president, Gompers edits the American Federationist, a monthly publication, directs labor's efforts to obtain favorable legislation at Washington, and keeps in touch with labor activities throughout the country.

With the exception of this year and in 1894, when John McBride, a mine worker, was elected president, Gompers has had virtually no opposition for re-election. He married Sophia Julian of New York early in life. After her death, he married Mrs. Gertrude Cleaver Neuschier of Zanesville, O., in April of this year.

Born in England, Gompers came to America when 13 years old. Working as a cigar maker, he organized an international cigar makers' union in 1864, and was secretary and president for six years. It was in connection with this work that he became interested in the larger movement which resulted in organization of the federation.

HUNGARIAN ARTIST HELD PRISONER IN JAPAN FIVE YEARS

of my own comrades to a suicide's grave.

HATED EACH OTHER

For five long years I slept and ate in a room ten feet square with eight others. How we lived is a story in itself. We were happy at first in the expectation of a German triumph. But the months grew, and how we hated each other. Indifference, then despair, and then hatred. The only relief came when death changed three of the men in our room and we had new persons to get acquainted with. The quarrel with, and then to hate bitterly. Knowing no Japanese, we could not even talk with those on the outside.

We appealed for labor and pleasant tasks. They were refused. We asked to be allowed to leave the camp for walks into the fields. We were told that the natives objected to our treading their rice fields. Our money, what little we had, was taken from us when liquor was served to the men—scores of whom, with nothing to do, gave their money for the alcohol and forgetfulness, only to pay a greater price in sickness and death.

The Japanese guards told us that this was the first time Japanese ever had white men for prisoners, and they had instructions to allow us no liberties. The natives organized excursions to come out and look at us—the Mikado's prisoners.

MEAN, PETTY TRICKS

The militarism of the army was reflected not in great ways but in mean, petty tricks that annoyed and made the men desperate. Little plants and vines were torn up, little drawings and toys destroyed with implacable calmness.

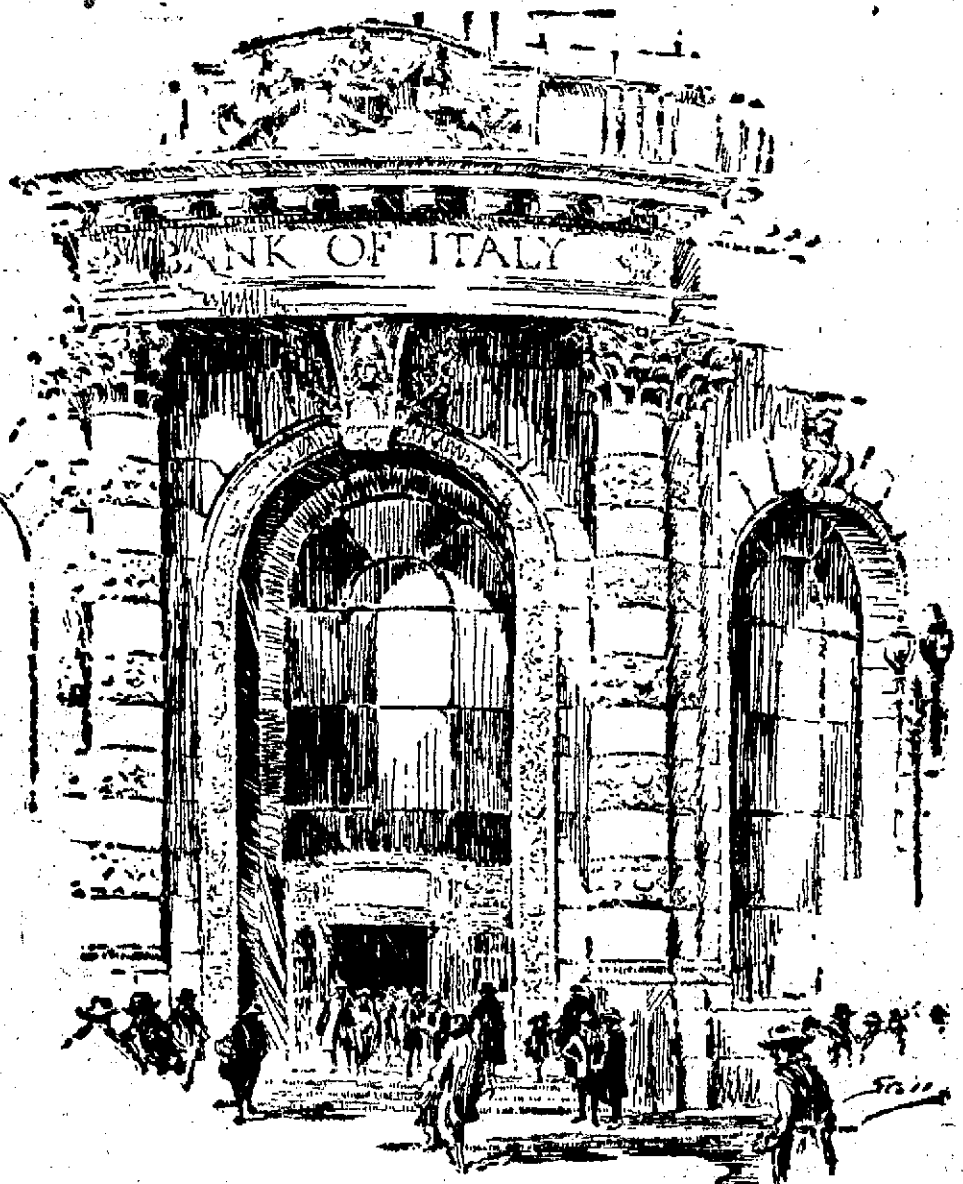

Petition after petition was sent out for mitigation of the close confinement. There was no relaxation. The army rule was to remain unbroken to the end. Had we known the long torture ahead of us, I do not believe many of us would have had courage to go on with it. At last it seemed as though the war never would end, and that we were forgotten. Even the signing of the armistice left us apathetic. We took no joy or interest in the life outside. And from November of the armistice to January, 1920, when I was finally released, I was without a thought of life or the things life held.

For a year I have been slowly regaining my strength in Japan, where, after my release, the Japanese people were very kind. I cannot blame the people. Now I am on my way to Valparaiso, where we have friends, and, if I live, I shall attempt to rekindle my art and revive, if I may, some of the joy and eagerness for life and the beautiful things of life.

BOY AUTHOR TO BE SPEAKER IN BAPTIST CHURCH

Horace Atkinson Wade, 13-year-old author of "In the Shadow of Great Peril" will speak at the First Baptist church tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock, offering a brief discussion of the Bible from a literary point of view. Rev. John N. Giers, pastor of the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist church and moderator of the San Francisco Bay conference, will speak tomorrow morning on the subject "Jesus Christ."

Horace Atkinson Wade, who became a successful writer at the age of 11 years, is generally recognized as America's youngest author. His first book, "In the Shadow of Great Peril," published two years ago, was an immediate success. It went into several editions. Another of young Wade's books will be published soon, it is said.

In addition to his phenomenal success as a writer, Horace has had an interesting career in the movies. He played the titular role in "The Boy," in which Judge Lindsay assumed one of the chief roles. He is now under way for the filming of young Wade's first novel.

The boy author has made several speaking tours over the United States and has met many of the world's most noted men and women. Success has not robbed the boy novelist of the play spirit of the liveliest and enthusiastic of youth. Inspired by his literary and other triumphs he is still one hundred per cent boy, according to those who know him best.

In connection with Wade's address tomorrow evening, E. K. Sturgis, Oakland attorney and author, will speak on "The Book Without a Press Agent."

Missionary Works With Gun In One Hand, Bible in Other

DES MOINES, Ia., June 25.—Newly arrived from his work among the 4,000,000 hereditary members of criminal tribes in India, the Rev. Samuel D. Bawden, the militant missionary who "preaches the Gospel with a Bible in his hand, and a revolver in his pocket," and who was awarded the Kaiser-i-hind medal by the Viceroy for his services last night, contrasted India's methods of dealing with her criminals with that in vogue in the United States, at the Northern Baptist Convention in this city.

This work, he said, was "a curious mixture of the law and the Gospel," since the Criminal Tribes Act gives him certain magisterial powers over the Kaval settlement of criminals. At times, he said, he had found it necessary to carry a revolver in quelling a riot between two castes, or in subduing the rebellion of 350 criminals who had just been sent to the settlement. But he declared that of those who had to be most severely disciplined at first, became excellent citizens "under the law of work and the law of worship."

"We have three tribes under our care, the Donga Brakalas, the Donga Dasaies, and Donga Kathiras," he explained. "Donga is the Telugu word for thief. The Donga Brakalas is a common sneak thief. The Donga Dasaies commits robberies which are recognized by the police, because he robs with violence, breaking an arm, a leg, or the head of his victim. 'Kithirala' is the Telugu word for scoundrel, and the Donga Kathiras is so called because it is his habit to carry a small pair of scissors, with which to snip the noses and ears of victims in order to more easily remove their jewels."

EARN OWN LIVINGS.

Each criminal who comes to the Kaval settlement, and to other settlements in charge of Baptist missionaries, except a few of the sick or aged, must earn his own food and clothing, if nothing more.

"Brought back from hiding in the jungles and confined within the boundaries of the settlement, they rebel at first," Rev. Bawden declared. "We are very able to convince them that it is for their own good and that of the public that they should remain, and learn the lessons we have to teach."

Contrary to the general opinion, people are getting better instead of worse, according to the report made by Rev. Thomas J. Villers of Detroit, chairman of the Committee on Evangelism, who said that the last year had been "the greatest year ever known in evangelism," and reported "the largest number of baptisms in our history."

"There has never such a quickening," Dr. Villers declared. "There have been nearly twice as many accessions as in the preceding year. Since October there have been fifty series of revival meetings, with converts more numerous than usual."

BETTER TRAINING NECESSARY.

More adequate training of skilled teachers, development of initiative and a better understanding of the objective, grading of classes, provision for better equipment for work, and taking of the schools away from the "penny basis," are essentials for the progress of church Bible schools, Dr. Henry D. Traile of the American Baptist Publication Society, Philadelphia, declared.

In developing greater initiative, Dr. Traile said, church school officers might pattern after Edison in trying out new ideas. Workers must understand that the objective of the Sunday or church Bible school is a Christianized, developed, socialized religious life, involving far more than a mere acquiring of Biblical facts. Every church should have teacher-training classes and conference, a library of books for the use of the workers, and should pay the way of its leaders to summer assemblies and training schools, the speaker declared.

CO-OPERATION WANTED.

Warning is sounded that there is need of a better understanding between the foreign-speaking Baptists and those born in this country; that a more definite policy on the part of the Northern Baptist convention is needed. "The Convention was urged to send fraternal messengers to the organizations of Baptist churches using other languages, and to seek close unity and greater co-operation."

The Committee reports the finding of an unrest among foreign born, due in part to a propaganda born of a misunderstanding of the voice of the church, and in part to the wholesale and unwarranted condemnation of foreigners as radicals, an attitude bred of the Americanization work. Much of the unrest, it is asserted, is affirmed, has reacted unfavorably because of its impatience and superficiality.

However, several foreign groups were found which have sworn a new and eager allegiance to America, deeper and more spiritual than formal citizenship or military service.

Visitors' Sunday Feature at First Presbyterian

"What do you think of Oakland's Baby Volstead law?" "Is the Denver federation convention likely to make a serious blunder?"

MISSION SCHOOL GROWS.

That the Swedish Mission Friends Sunday School at 5125 Ignacio avenue, Meriden, Conn., is prospering in the way of increased membership since its organization in 1914, was observed last morning when the school observed the celebration of its 10th anniversary. The school, in connection with the celebration of its 10th anniversary, a special service was organized in the pupils. The school has a membership of 100 pupils and scholars. Tireless devotion of the teachers and teachers has resulted in a continued growth of the school.

The classes of the Sunday school are conducted for the most part by the members of the church. The members were recently presented with a book of the students, and are being presented to A. Nelson, the superintendent, to his class of officers. The success of the Sunday schools is attributed to the devotion of the teachers.

Rev. G. L. Pearson, superintendent of the Methodist work among the Chinese, and the father of Rev. George C. Pearson, pastor of Twentieth avenue M. E. church, will conduct the evening service tomorrow.

The pastor will speak at the morning hour upon the topic "The Consequence of Christian Victory." The Sunday school and Epworth League offer special attractions for the young people of the community.

DRESSMAKER MADE WELL

Followed a Neighbor's Advice and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vernon, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my sides. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. STEPHENS, 1103 N. Commerce St., Vernon, Tex.

Dressmakers when overworked are prone to such ailments and should profit by Mrs. Stephens' experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

Hold-up Man Shot in Attempt to Rob Club

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25.—A man giving the name of Albert Reynolds, 22, was shot in the abdomen and knocked senseless with a billiard cue when he attempted to hold up patrons of the Coffee club here last night. His wounds were said by the police not to be dangerous and he was lodged in jail. Reynolds had just lined up 25 patrons of the club after firing a shot over the head of the club doorkeeper, when two patrolmen rushed into the room. Reynolds fired four shots which missed the patrolmen, who replied with their pistols, one bullet hitting Reynolds in the abdomen.

The duel was terminated abruptly when T. N. Nickles, secretary of the club, seized a billiard cue and felled Reynolds. Nickles was wounded.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Warren Pershing, son of General Pershing, celebrated his twelfth birthday by being the guest yesterday of President and Mrs. Harding at luncheon at the White House. The general, Secretary Weeks and Senator Warren of Wyoming, grandfather of Warren, were other guests.

See Montclair Tomorrow

As an important part of your Sunday outing, plan a trip to Montclair. See this new residence section that every one is talking about. You owe it to yourself and your family to know just what these acre and half-acre homesites are, so close to the business and amusement centers of both Oakland and San Francisco.

Come out by bus line extension of the Piedmont Avenue car line, or drive out in your own car. Either way it is a delightful trip. You cross the hill and drop down from thickly settled Piedmont into a beautiful open countryside—Montclair. You say, "What charming country estates!"—yet you are within the city limits of Oakland, nearer the Oakland City Hall by ten minutes than if you were in Alameda or Berkeley.

If Montclair were in Los Angeles

it would be settled by millionaires, who would buy seven to ten acres and build mansions costing from $50,000 to $200,000. That is the way Beverly Hills, Oak Knoll, Flint Ridge and other southern suburbs have been built up.

If we would hold this 2500-acre subdivision for a few years longer it would go to the millionaires who are rapidly coming here because of Oakland's industries, and bring prices far exceeding those asked today. But the Realty Syndicate Company is liquidating its vast holdings, and Montclair, along with its other properties, must be entirely sold within two years' time. That is why the man of moderate means is able to buy a millionaire's site in Montclair today, at prices well within his means.

MONTCLAIR

is the coming high class residence section of the Eastbay. It is of the same quality as Piedmont and Claremont, which it adjoins. It is even better, because nothing smaller than a half acre is to be sold in Montclair, which means an uncrowded district for all time. Yet when Piedmont and Claremont lots are selling at $60 a front foot you can buy in Montclair for from $12 to $15 a front foot.

Half Acres $500 to $2000

$50 down--then small amounts monthly

Buying today at the above prices and terms you can readily figure what your homesite will be worth when Montclair is built up. And the building has already begun!

No interest or taxes until July 1st, 1922

The purchase price for these beautiful homesites includes water, electricity and oil macadam roads. Ten miles of fine roads have already been built throughout the property.

Transportation is already in Montclair. 22-passenger busses are now being operated by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, running from the center of Montclair to Piedmont and Fortieth, where they connect with Piedmont Avenue car and Key Route. This makes Montclair only 6c and 20 minutes from Fourteenth and Broadway, and 41 minutes from the Ferry Building. You can drive from Montclair to the business center of Oakland in 11 minutes.

How to Reach Montclair

BOY'S ADOPTION SET ASIDE WHEN CHARGES MADE

Mother Went to Mexico to Wed Before Final Decree

possession of six-year-old Romualdo, who had been admitted to citizenship by the witness stand that day. Mr. Haddell's mother, Gwendolyn Porter, had gone to Mexico to marry again without a final decree of divorce. Superior Judge J. B. Robinson had granted the adoption of the boy by the mother of Mrs. Porter's latest companion. Attorneys on both sides contended that the boy's adoption by Mrs. Robinson had indicated he would grant the motion of Attorney O. D. Hamlin Jr. to vacate the previous order.

Mrs. Porter, then Mrs. Collin, was granted a divorce and the custody of the son. She remarried, but has only an interlocutory decree of divorce from her second husband. She also asked the court to permit the boy's adoption by Mrs. Emma Gordon, mother of Archie Haddell. She admitted she was not a citizen. She admitted she went through a form of marriage in Mexico. As the mother was the child's legal custodian and the father was not assumed to be charged then, Judge Robinson granted the petition.

Attorneys Donahue and Hynes, with Hamlin, represented the father. D. Hamlin subsequently charged that Mrs. Porter, Haddell and the child had been found at 2 a. m. in a local hotel. They said the father had not assumed the adoption proceedings and asked that the order be revoked.

Questioned, on the witness stand by the attorneys, Mrs. Gordon said her son and Mrs. Porter had lived together after going to Mexico to marry. Asked why Mrs. Porter had not been charged with Haddell, Mrs. Gordon said she and Haddell couple later found the marriage was illegal.

The matter was continued to August 4 for hearing on the question of the custody of the child, who is to spend half of the intervening time

Mrs. Lewis conducts an apartment house at 1305 Madison street. Posage roomed there. According to the evidence, Mrs. Lewis objected to companions of Posage, and asked him to vacate the room. Shortly afterwards he brought suit for $50, which he said he loaned Mrs. Lewis.

The court declared Posage's story ridiculous, and the man evidently wished revenge for being ejected from the house.

Bees Make a Bad Showing When Oaks Win

Local Players Grow Tired of Trotting Bases and Save Scorer's Life.

In a wild and long-drawn-out contest at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon, the Oaks edged up in their series with the Salt Lake Bees by taking the large part of a 13 to 8 score. The guests outlasted the locals, by gathering a total of nineteen hits off the pitching of Harry (Sox) Siebold and George (Lefty) Winn, while Manager Gavy Cravath, of the Bees used Gould, Kishino and Blaeholder to hold the Oaks to fourteen hits. But in spite of being outlasted, the Oaks had nothing to fear about.

Harry Siebold was on his way to the showers after pitching to five batters in the first inning, and before Lefty could get a couple of bearings, the Bees had a 4 to 0 lead. The Oaks went to bat in their half of the first inning, and took four hits off Siebold, and another off Winn in the second.

JOHN PAUL JONES OF INDIANAPOLIS CLUB IS THE NEW MOUND ARTIST

Was Second Best Pitcher in American Association and Club Finis hed in Fifth Place.

By EDDIE MURPHY
John Paul Jones, a pitcher whom the records show was the second best flinger in the American Association last season, will join the Oakland pitching staff in Los Angeles next week. Superintendent Del Howard of the Oaks announced this morning that a deal to make him an Oak had been closed last evening, and that he expects the flinger will be a big help to the Oaks in the remaining months of the pennant fight. Jones won twenty games and lost thirteen for the Indianapolis team last season, and that club finished in fifth place. Figuring on "runs responsible for," Jones was the second best pitcher in the league.

Jones hasn't been winning very regularly this season, and after being told that the pitcher was desired to the Indianapolis owners asking for a run on the pitcher. They saw their terms out here, and Howard advised Secretary McFarlin last night to wire back that they were agreeable to the local club.

IS IT A WAR DECLARATION?

George Bernard Shaw has long been distinguished by his habit of resort to extreme and overdrawn phrases. He likes to distribute a little dynamite among his paragraphs. His conclusions are accentuated. He writes very much like the mannikins who show ultra-fashionable styles dress—half naked, a lot of flesh exposed. He indulges pyrotechnics. He is "jazzy."

This habit of Shaw's enjoins caution in accepting what he says as expressing the exact truth. Yet he very often calls attention to facts which the trimmers and duckers would have concealed or at least not mentioned. He puts his finger frequently on the very thing that would happen if the worst probabilities under given circumstances should come to pass.

With these explanations, it is noteworthy that Shaw, in an article written on June 23 and published first on June 23, declared that "Premier Lloyd George has declared war on America."

In the leading article in these columns of June 22, THE TRIBUNE stated that Mr. Lloyd George's speech before the London conference of imperial premiers urging the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese agreement was the expression of an offensive British policy against the United States in the Pacific area. This act of the British premier, coupled with his observations on the urgency of maintaining British sea power in the Pacific for the "security" of the empire, leaves little doubt as to the aggressive motives of England's foreign policy.

We prefer our own characterization, because it is less alarming where real alarm does not seem justified by the known facts and present developments. But time may prove that Shaw has made the more correct statement. Great Britain's alliance with the Asiatic naval power is of serious concern to this country. There is not enough sand on this Continent in which to bury our heads in order to avoid seeing the ugly prospects. The situation must be faced frankly, and courageously.

THE CHINA DIVISIONISTS.

Earnest effort if not prosperity seems to attend the scheme of one very large clique of Chinese politicians to divide their country into at least two parts, and thus to bring about as harmful a division of national strength as possible. The South China revolutionaries continue defiant of the Peking central authority and they control a large section of the richest and most populous part of China.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen heads the revolutionaries. It is his second adventure in opposition to the Peking government. The first attempt was characterized by his visit to Japan in an effort to get Japanese financial support for his scheme of division. For some reason or other—there will be many to deny Japan the credit of virtue in Japan's refusal—this effort failed. After a wait of five years he has made another effort.

In Dr. Sun's South China cabinet are to be found several of the reactionaries of the old Manchu regime. Dr. Wu Ting Fang, at one time the highly entertaining Chinese diplomatic representative at Washington, is minister for foreign affairs. Dr. Wu might not relish the application of Manchu reactionary to himself, but in his system of thought, his ideals and his allegiances he is all of that.

Mr. Tang Shao-yi is minister of finance. He was formerly prime minister at Peking and was a staunch supporter of the late President Yuan Shih-kai. Mr. Tang was governor of the three Manchurian provinces in 1908, when he started to Washington on a special mission to gain financial and moral support for certain government projects. While en route he learned of the conclusion of the Root-Takahara agreement, of which China had been kept in ignorance, and he was so pained that he did not stop at Washington at all.

Other members of Sun Yat Sen's cabinet are (General) Chen Chungming and Rear Admiral Tang Ting-kong. The entire cabinet is composed of men who formerly held high places under the central government, but who have become separated from it for one reason or another.

With hundreds of others of displaced politicians they have been living in the foreign settlements of Shanghai and at Hongkong and Canton for several years. Their means of existence have been drawn from the treasured profits of political offices they once held. These malcontents have now united to found a southern government in opposition to the Republic.

Were it necessary to pass judgment on the respective merits and virtues of the political crowd at Peking and the political "outs" at Canton and Shanghai the task would be most difficult. One is as bad as the other. But of the quality of statesmanship that aims at the division of the republic, there can be little doubt; it is utterly bad.

THE POLO VICTORY.

Like international yacht races, there is not much popular appeal for the American people in an international polo match. But, particularly in view of the defeat of the American golf team by British players three weeks ago, it is some consolation that the American polo team has just won the match with the British team in two straight victories.

In stamina, initiative and skill, in horsemanship and in the quality and training of the polo ponies, the Americans appeared to have beaten the Britishers at every point. British experts and the thousands of people who witnessed the contests have no drawbacks to their acknowledgments of American superiority.

Polo is a game for the wealthy, and in the main for men with no other claims upon their time. The cost of ponies and the further cost of training, exercising, and maintenance, is heavy. But it is nevertheless cause for popular satisfaction that Americans have been successful in breeding, developing and training horses and in providing expert players capable of beating the best poloists of the world.

This is another tribute to the thoroughness, enthusiasm and tenacity with which the American devotee of sport and athletics distinguishes his undertakings. There is no satisfaction with a thing done only fairly well. The goal always is excellence, as it should be.

Mr. John Exline, new prohibition enforcement officer for the West, was sworn in and took office Thursday. He was to have been inducted Monday, but according to the report, refused to accept the succession without a detailed statement as to the liquors that had been seized by his predecessor, their disposition, etc. This, it was represented, the predecessor refused to give, claiming that he had not received such report when he took charge. The succeeding official appears to have waived his condition, though his first act was to order the captured booze checked up. It is concluded that he wanted to find out where he commenced.

The end of possibilities as to automobile accidents seems never to be reached. There are ever new ways to come to grief. Experienced drivers are on their guard for accidents of a kind that they have been through or observed, but the variants are endless. One of the quite different kind is that which happened to an experienced driver at Oakland. The car took a rut with such violence that the driver bounced up against the framework of the hood, gashing his scalp severely. Probably he was looking for any kind of an accident except that.

Some 45,000 verified names have been signed to petitions for a referendum of the Wright Prohibition Enforcement Act, while only 34,343 are required. At that, the returns are not all in. Enough names will be added, it is predicted, to make it overwhelming. But even this will not make the situation very humid. The Volstead Act will remain, and nearly all that is being done by prohibition agents is under the provisions of that act. But the rejection of the Wright Act will again show the sentiment in California, and that seems to be the object.

Domestic Bolsheviks must be greatly disturbed by the despatches from Moscow which seem to indicate that Lenin, Trotsky and Krassin are no longer Bolsheviks—that they have turned back to "capitalism." When the masters desert, what becomes of the ignorant acolytes?

SANTO DOMINGO'S WELFARE.

Late in 1920 President Wilson took the first step in the direction of withdrawing the American forces from Santo Domingo by authorizing the appointment of a native commission to co-operate with the American Military Governor. It was proper that the next step should be taken by President Wilson's successor. Secretary Hughes has issued a proclamation to the people of Santo Domingo notifying them that their country will be evacuated in eight months, after elections have been held under the supervision of the United States and a new government has been inaugurated. "The further assistance," it was said, "of the Advisory Commission, appointed under proclamation of December 23, 1920, being no longer required, it is hereby dissolved, with the expression of the grateful appreciation of the Government of the United States."

Within one month primary assemblies to choose electors are to be called by the Military Governor. The electors are to proceed to elect Senators and Deputies and to prepare lists of Judges. This body is to ratify "all the acts of the Military Government," validate a loan to complete projected public works, approve of necessary extensions of the duties of the general receiver of Dominican customs, and assure the maintenance of an efficient Guardia Nacional. Whereupon the Military Governor will resume possession of her government with reservations that are not intended to be perpetual. They are deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, the protection of property rights and the payment of obligations. The American occupation was not welcomed, and its acts have been criticized by Dominicans, but it should have taught an enduring lesson. In the nature of things, the United States will continue to be responsible for good government in Santo Domingo.—New York Times.

NOTES and COMMENT

People give presents in accord with their ideas of keepsake values. Residents of Wyoming consider a silver-trimmed cowboy hat a precious souvenir. Consequently they show their esteem for the President by giving him one. And they show a nice consideration in not stipulating that he shall wear it, even long enough for a photographer to take a snapshot.

The Seventh Day Adventists of Mandan, North Dakota, have memorized the Congress against the passage of Sunday blue laws. "This sect is on a defensible ground in having it understood that it would not institute Saturday blue laws if the majority observed the seventh day instead of the first."

The first act of the new national Prohibition Commissioner was to ask every one to refrain from making jokes about liquor enforcement. Probably it would require more than a constitutional amendment to enforce a deadline on jokes in this country.—New York Sun.

Nobody believes that Theodore Roosevelt died owing a woman $69,000, money borrowed for political use. The claim is so preposterous that there is no call to speculate as to how it came to be made. Perhaps somebody is under a hallucination, or has been the victim of a confidence game.

Several instances of men preferring public jobs or private preferment in California at smaller returns than could be realized elsewhere have been reported, evincing a willingness to submit to financial sacrifice in consideration of living here. No greater tribute could be paid a State.

Reading, famous for many things, as from time to time may be gathered from the veracious Searchlight, is now considerably astray over "diatomaceous earth." Pending further details, dictionaries may be consulted.

It is difficult to convince the average householder during the glad summertime, when he is generally hunting for a cool place, that it is just the time to lay in the winter's coal. But really it is psychological for that purpose, and it is, perhaps, unfortunate that a realization of the fact has to be awaited till the winter solstice.

Despatches say the Greeks are ready to accept mediation. It is very much to be hoped that all belligerents. After fighting "all over the lot" and getting nowhere they are willing to submit to an impartial decision as to the merits of the matter in issue.

The prediction of the new superintendent of banks, that the present generation will see a population of nine million in California, allows some leeway for the fulfillment, but if it takes the full limit it will not be unworthy progress.

Why the rule against the "spit ball" and not against intentional passing of a batter? A moistened ball only reduces the batter's chance of hitting well; a pitched out ball takes away any chances of hitting at all.—New York Herald.

The plea of King George, that the Irish people forgive and forget and join in making a new era of peace and contentment, is strangely though characteristically coincident with the government's decision to send more troops to Ireland.

Haig Patigian, by sculptor's measurements, has coincided with Dr. Abram's blood tests as to the disputed paternity of a boy. That is interesting, but some of those concerned may possibly hold that it doesn't prove it.

Maybe the Stockton Record is looking ahead to the November observance. "Conditions in the Near East again indicate that the only way to have a real Thanksgiving is to kill the Turk."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

The jury disagreed in a case where in W. L. Leister and Fred Broadbent of Fresno were tried on a charge of starting a camp fire and letting it get away from them. The fire was started near the line between Mariposa and Madera counties, burned over several thousand acres of range, destroyed buildings, fences, hay and feed. One sheep owner lost 150 head.—Madera Mercury.

Crap shooting, "stud" and other chance games are barred from Uncle Sam's public playgrounds. Gamblers of all kinds, even to nickel-matching, is to be taboo in Yosemite and other national parks, according to orders sent by government officials to the automobile clubs.—Los Banos Enterprise.

We need a law compelling hens to lay a larger egg when the price is high, and one making bakers pay more flour in the pie, it is a wonder Congress don't attempt to it—they have passed every other kind of a law.—Rio Vista Banner.

The people are exhorted by the Bolsheviks to "rise." Only known way to make 'em do it is to knock a home run over the fence. They will jump on the seats and begin to yell.—Watsonville Pajaronian.

He must have been quite "crowded," that Oakland man who freed his mother-in-law into a trunk and locked it because she protested when he threatened to kill his wife.—Stockton Record.

PUNISHMENT.
The first of the convicted German war criminals got six months in jail. If they ever convict the Kaiser his punishment should be at least 12 and costs.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

NOW WATCH THE TURKISH FRONT BEGIN TO WEAKEN

LET THE PEOPLE JUDGE.

There are two good and sufficient reasons against a legal censorship of moving pictures.
It is not necessary.
And it would produce more evils than it would cure.

The theory upon which a legal censorship of films is sought is precisely the theory which advocates a censorship of the press.
It assumes that some person clothed with brief authority is a better and wiser judge of what the people should see or read than are the people themselves.

But in experience it has not worked out that way.
The very persons whom a censorship would set up to pass upon the kind of information or entertainment with which it would be safe to entice an ignorant populace invariably proves to be less wise than the populace and very much less competent.

If he is an honest person he tries to fit the minds of the many to his own mind, with its biases, limitations and snags. The result is a misfit and a serious deprivation of the people's natural liberties.

If he is a dishonest person, to the handicaps of his limitations and biases are added gross opportunities for venality, utilized to the point of outrage and often scandal.

The founders of our Republic made part of our fundamental law freedom of utterance, assembly, speech and printing.

If the moving pictures had played the part of the commanding part in public instruction which it plays today, it is obvious that they would have included it also in these constitutional guarantees.

It does not follow, because of such reservations in our great charter, that the public is without protection against abuses of those guaranteed liberties.

Though free to speak, to write and to print, the speaker, writer or printer is properly held accountable for the effects of his utterance.

If a jury of his peers holds that his exercise of this freedom has resulted in wrongs to society, he is subject to punishment and may be required to make reparation.

To that kind of censorship none can object.
It is a censorship after the fact, of adequate application of the natural law of responsibility.

The picture film should be as much subject to law as any other vehicle of intelligence, and it is. It should not be singled out for discriminatory treatment.

The American people, the world at large, have had too much censorship these past years.
It has resulted in filling their minds with part truths, distorted truth and mendacious falsehoods.

Civilization is in confusion and large parts of human society are in peril of disintegration because censorship and lying propaganda, spawned by selfish intrigue but gloomed with deceptive appeals to patriotism, have denied to peoples the corrective influence of truth.

What YOUR HEALT

What Occurs in "Achyilia," a Strange Stomach Disorder.
By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.,
Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Digestion begins in the stomach. Of course, there is important function lodged in the mouth and saliva and this is exercised, or course, before the food is acted on by the gastric juices. But the stomach starts the vitally important work of digestion and, in order to do it properly, must have an abundance of normal gastric juice.

The gastric juice consists of mineral salts, certain ferments, water and free hydrochloric acid. The amount of hydrochloric acid varies in certain diseases and under certain conditions. It may disappear entirely, or it may be doubled in quantity.

Normally, the reaction of the contents of the stomach, full or empty, is acid. When the reaction is neutral or alkaline something is wrong. There are several different thoughts of beneficial effects wrought by the hydrochloric acid in the stomach. The normal gastric juice is a powerful antiseptic. It will preserve meat and prevent its decomposition. It will destroy the germs of cholera and many of the pus-producing germs. Unfortunately, there are some germs which are not so affected, but, undoubtedly, the germicidal action of the hydrochloric acid in the gastric juice is a daily protection to us.

It is used to be thought that the absence of this acid indicated cancer of the stomach. This theory has been abandoned, although the acid seems reduced in this disease.

There is a condition, however, where the stomach lacks the juices, where they are entirely absent. This is called "achyilia."

The symptoms of achyilia may not be pronounced. Very likely, however, fermentation of the food will take place. Then there will be a sense of fullness. There may be belching and vomiting of food.

The gastric juices, through the impulses generated by their acidity probably, have an effect upon the escape valve of the stomach. The action of this valve they control in some way. In achyilia the valve stands open and the undigested food goes at once into the intestine. It may pass through the body in a few hours and escape in almost its original form it was eaten.

Achyilia is sometimes a nervous manifestation. It may follow overstimulation of the stomach by alcohol, excessive meat-eating, or too great indulgence in highly spiced food.

The victim of this disease is liable to acute infections, because of the lack of disinfecting effects of the gastric juices. He is made to suffer if he eats meat, eggs, milk or other easily decomposed food.

In the treatment, attempts have been made to overcome the digestive trouble by giving dilute hydrochloric acid. Various combinations of hydrochloric acid with other substances, for instance, wheat gluten, have been successfully employed.

The family doctor will determine whether diabetes, anemia, gall bladder disease or some other condition is complicating the case. If not, patient with achyilia requires careful and long-continued treatment.

LEGAL FIGHT FOR CHILD IS INSTITUTED

R. E. Ruble of Berkeley Seeking Custody of His 2-Year-Old Daughter Now Under Care of Mother, Husband

Notice of a fight for his two-year-old child, adopted last Tuesday by the child's mother, Mrs. Hazel Cornwell, and her husband, Thomas Cornwell, was filed with County Clerk today by Ray E. Ruble.

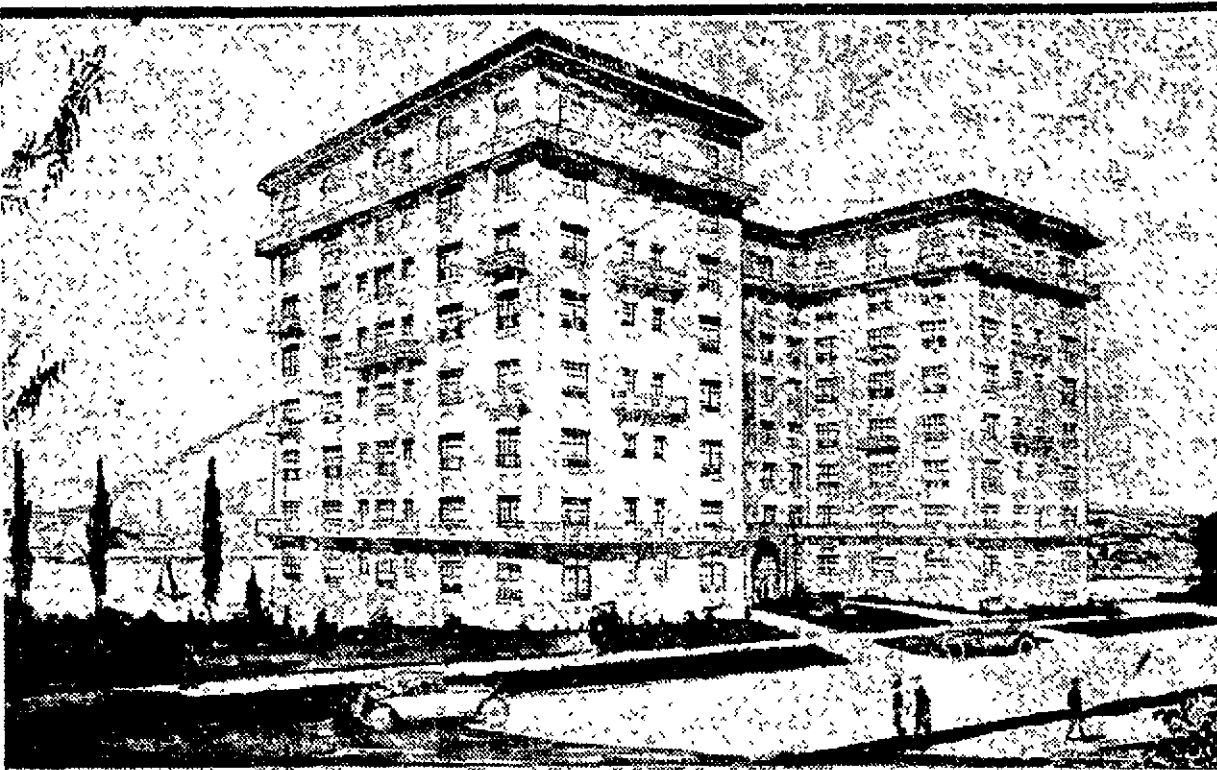

The affidavit of Ruble sets forth that the child, Faith Elizabeth Ruble, was born June 29, 1919, when he and the mother were living together as husband and wife. He says he often entreated the girl to marry him but that she refused, though on October 15, last, she executed a relinquishment to him in order that he might adopt the baby. He says the girl's mother, Mrs. Clara Baber, wrote him that she would bring the baby here in October for the adoption and he expected to marry the mother, but Mrs. Baber could not come at the time. The next he heard, she says, was that his expected bride had become the wife of Cornwell and that they had adopted the baby under their own name. He says no notice was given to him of the adoption.

The matter will be heard next Thursday by Judge Dudley Kinsell. Deputy District Attorney Donald McGhee, who represents the Cornwells and who appeared in Tuesday's adoption proceedings, says he was not informed as to Ruble's interest in the matter but that his clients will make a fight to retain the child. Ruble lives at 1421 Parker street, Berkeley.

Barley Runs High On Tracts At Byron

BYRON, June 25.—Some wonderful yields of barley are reported from the West-Wilhoit holdings on the Byron Tract, where 2000 acres of grain is being harvested. In places it is running in excess of fifty sacks to the acre, the sacks weighing on an average above 100 pounds. The entire field will average more than 40 sacks to the acre.

Ferguson Brothers on Clifton Tract are harvesting better than 40 sacks of barley to the acre, some pieces going 45 sacks.

Webber Brothers, on Clifton, have another 1000 acres in barley. Harvesting started Monday, with a new Holt combined harvester outfit. The yield is heavy and possibly will average more than 40 sacks. It was on this same tract several years ago, that the state record of 62 sacks of barley to the acre was made.

Vinegar Brothers, farming on the uplands, where the rainfall was far less than an average, secured 14 sacks of Marjout barley to the acre, while the common barley went only 10 sacks. In some sections of the Byron range, Marjout went 12 sacks, while common barley, planted under the same conditions, made only hay.

Duke Forgets to Kiss Bride; Pastor Forgets His Lines

Religious Ceremony Uniting
Miss Deacon and Marlborough Held Today.

By EDWIN HULLINGER,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, June 25.—The Duke of Marlborough failed to exercise his most important prerogative today when the religious ceremony was performed in his wedding to Miss Gladys Deacon of Boston—he didn't kiss the bride.

The religious ceremony was held in the gardens of the home of Eugene Higgins, a cousin of Miss Deacon. The civil ceremony took place yesterday at the British consulate.

The identity of the minister who was to officiate was kept secret even from the guests until just before the wedding began. Then Higgins approached with the Rev. T. H. Wright, pastor of the Scots church of Paris. The minister was extremely nervous. He once forgot his lines and had to start over again.

Afterward he showed considerable asperity toward the newspaper men.

"Neither Miss Deacon nor the duke belong to my parish," he told the United Press. "How I happened to officiate is none of the public's business; it is a matter between the bridegroom and myself."

The ceremony was brief and extremely formal. Walter Berry, president of the American Chamber of Commerce, was best man. Higgins gave the bride away.

Contest Looms for San Pablo Property

MARTINEZ, June 25.—What appears to be indicative of a contest in the estate of the late Hugh Muir Jr., of San Pablo, is a second petition for letters of administration filed Tuesday by Laura L. Morse. In the second petition ten persons are named as heirs, but their relation to the deceased man is not set forth. Both petitions value the estate at about $10,000.

Suffocation!

Flowers and plants wither and die in the noxious laden atmosphere from open gas radiators, and the same deterioration takes place in the mucous membranes and blood of the human body, wasting vitality, and arresting proper development. How much greater the menace to child life! The clean, normal heat radiated from the hot-water, steam or vapor fixture, where this system is in use, offers an unanswerable argument in its favor, for pure blood and sound lungs.

Call on a Heating Contractor instead of later on a doctor.

ALIEN LISTING TEST PLAN OF CLERK GROSS

Warned by Col. John P. Irish and Will Proceed Under His Own Counsel's Advice Against Unregistered Aliens

County Clerk George L. Gross today declared he would make no move toward the arrest or trial of aliens refusing to register under the poll tax law until he has consulted his attorney and has cleared up some of the legal phases now involved in uncertainty.

To do this he believed the proper way to test the law is to arrest someone who is able to procure bail and counsel, or who has the backing of some organized body, such as the Japanese association, rather than to pick up some unfortunate alien, ignorant and poor, who might have to remain in jail for months while the test is pending.

IRISH WARNS GROSS

Gross was warned by Col. John P. Irish recently that the American League of Justice, an organization to aid Japanese, would cause the prosecution of officials enforcing the poll tax law under the federal statute providing for fine and imprisonment of anyone seeking to curtail the rights of alien subjects as guaranteed in the treaties with their native countries.

Gross replied that he would register aliens as directed by the law, but he said today he wishes to move carefully in regard to actual arrest of aliens.

District Attorney Ezra Decoto said he had no objection to a warrant and would make no move until he had received one.

TAILOR OUSTS DEPUTY

JO A. Wagner, county registrar, stated today that one of his registration deputies, Maurice J. Kelly, attempted yesterday afternoon to register a tailor on San Pablo avenue, and that the man ordered him out of the place and threw a pair of scissors after him.

Kelly hastened to a shop and bought a club, after which he returned to the shop. The tailor saw him coming and locked the door. Kelly retired for further consideration of ways and means.

Adventists to Meet in Lodi Conference

LODI, June 25.—Announcement has just been made that Lodi has been chosen for the Northern California conference of the Seventh-Day Adventists, June 30 to July 10. At least 2000 persons will be camped in tents, pavilions and the buildings of the Lodi academy, the latter an Adventist institution. Tents will be laid out on their campus. A feature will be a tent hospital with trained nurses and a corps of physicians in attendance from the St. Helena sanitarium. No less than twelve services a day will be held. Leading clergymen of this church from all sections of the United States will be present. Elder Clarence Santee, president of the Northern California conference, will be in charge of the campment, among valley towns, Galt, Lodi, Stockton, Oakdale, Modesto, Turlock, Salida and Merced will be represented.

FUGITIVE IS SHOT; FIGHTS POLICEMAN

"Two Gun" Pete Is Brought Down After He Sends Officer to Sidewalk With Fist; Pal Is Held for Investigation

William A. Thomas colored, also known as "Two-Gun Pete," was shot and seriously injured early this morning after he had assaulted Policeman Wendell B. Huddleston, who had placed him and Buford Kennedy, also colored, under arrest.

Huddleston was standing at Seventh and Wood streets when he heard a shot from the direction of Ninth and Pine streets. As he turned the corner into Pine street he met Thomas and Kennedy. They both denied knowledge of the shot.

"FIGHTER KNOKED DOWN." The officer watched Kennedy first but found no gun on him. He then started to search "Two-Gun Pete" and found the revolver in the side pocket of his pants. When he put his hand in the pocket to get the gun Thomas hit him with his fist and knocked him to the ground. The man then started to run south on Pine street. The officer, while still on the ground, fired two shots at the man. Kennedy stopped, but "Two-Gun Pete" kept going.

WOMAN LEAPS FROM WINDOW, FLEES HOME

According to the police report of the affair, after a dispute with her husband, Mrs. Dackrell ran to a room on the second floor of the house and barricaded herself in, notifying her husband that if he attempted to get in she would reduce him to bits, whereupon he called the police.

Mendocino Wool Clip Will Bring 20 Cents

UKIAH, June 25.—Mendocino county ranks as one of the foremost wool producing districts in California having more than 100,000 head of sheep. Accordingly, when it was reported today a clip taken from a Southern Mendocino flock was sold for 20 cents a pound, it forecast about what wool will bring this year.

Comet Due to Begin Shower Of Meteors

Fourth of July may come a week early to the bay region, say astronomers at the University, for beginning tomorrow, the Pons-Winnecke comet is supposed to start its flitting with the earth.

Professor Russell T. Crawford, astronomer, says a meteoric shower can be looked for from the visitor. "The shower will be nothing serious," says the professor. "Just a little Fourth of July party, that's all."

The shower, according to Professor Crawford, may be expected either tomorrow, Monday or Tuesday. It will take the form of a meteoric spray of small particles as far as scientists can determine. At the present time the earth is declared moving away from the comet. The nearest approach of the comet to the earth is declared to have occurred on June 12, when 10,000,000 miles separated them. At no time is the comet visible to the naked eye. Strong telescopes are necessary to obtain even a faint glimpse of it.

EASTBAY ELKS TO ATTEND REUNION

Members of the Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda lodges, B. P. O. Elks, numbering more than 250, including delegates and past grand officers, will attend the fifty-seventh reunion of the Grand Lodge of Elks, held at Los Angeles during the week of July 11-17. Grand Exalted Ruler William M. Abbott of San Francisco will preside.

William J. Garbino of Oakland, Quentin E. Morse of Berkeley and George S. Williams of Alameda are the delegates chosen to represent the three lodges. In addition, past grand officers of each of the three lodges will attend.

Approximately 200,000 Elks, including 2574 delegates representing the 1423 lodges of the order throughout the United States, are expected to attend the reunion. Special trains will convey the delegates from the larger cities. A special steamer will carry the delegates from Washington and Oregon.

An extensive program, including a floral parade, an electrical parade and a parade of the States, with floats representing the various States of the Union, has been arranged by the Los Angeles lodge and will be given on different nights during the convention.

Efforts will be made by the San Francisco delegation to have the reunion in 1922 held in San Francisco, it is stated.

Frederick O'Brien's new book starts in the Oakland TRIBUNE Sunday.

It's already Ground ready for you

—when you make Chocolate Roll

Take 3 tablespoons Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, 3 tablespoons sifted powdered sugar, 3 large eggs, Beat whites and yolks separately; add sugar to yolks, beat 10 minutes, add chocolate; mix thoroughly; fold in beaten whites; bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Use shallow square pan, lightly buttered; cut off edges, roll over folded napkin as for jelly-roll. Beat 1/2 pint pastry cream, sweetened to taste. When roll is cold, fill with cream. Cut in slices; chocolate sauce may be added if desired.

What makes Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate work so "smoothly" in the oven? The same uniform richness that makes it so "smooth" in the cup. It's this flavor, this just-so richness, that makes Ghirardelli's the preferred chocolate for baking and dessert-making. Yes—and the most convenient chocolate, too! For Ghirardelli's is perfectly ground, ready to use as it comes from the can. You just "dip in"—no bother, no grating!

Ask your grocer for Ghirardelli's and write for our new book of recipes—it's free!

YOUNGMAN PLANS
VIGOROUS BIGAMY
CHARGE DEFENSEFeared Girl Would Kill Self.
Musician Replies to Enid
Whittlesey.

Charges of bigamy brought against Ray Youngman by Mrs. Enid Whittlesey Youngman, the girl with whom he says he was forced into a marriage a week ago, will be met with vigorous defense, according to an announcement of Youngman made today through his attorney, Myron Harris. Youngman alleges the ceremony with Miss Whittlesey was forced upon him by the girl and her father; that he was afraid of violence at the hands of the father and, in addition, was fearful, unless he went willingly to the license bureau and justice court, the girl would commit suicide.

Following the ceremony, he says, he excused himself on a pretext that he had to go to Richmond and did not see Wife Number Two until a conference was arranged in Harris' office a few days ago. Mrs. Youngman Number One, who was Miss Dorothy Van Halten, is standing by him in his difficulties.

It was Youngman's suit for an annulment of the marriage that caused the second wife to bring the action which carries with it the possibility of a prison sentence. After steadily refusing to follow the suggestions of her father, Charles L. Whittlesey and brother to bring the bigamy charges, Mrs. Enid Youngman changed her mind when she read the specific charges in the annulment proceedings that her husband filed. In his allegations Youngman says he was forced by coercion into a bigamous marriage.

Mrs. Youngman Number Two appeared before Judge D. S. O'Brien yesterday afternoon and swore out the warrant for Youngman's arrest.

Milk to Sell
At 12 Cents
After July 3

Milk at 12 cents a quart will make its reappearance in Alameda county July 3, according to announcement of the Alameda County Milk Dealers' Association. With quotas retailing at 12 cents, plenty will be sold for 3 cents.

Producers recently announced a decrease in the wholesale price of milk of 6 cents a gallon. According to Joseph Davidson, a lower schedule of expenses operated in the cut to the consumer.

Leaders in the Housewives' league about the bay, notably the State organization and the Alameda branch, are claiming victory in the lowered cost. For many months they have insisted that 12 cents was a fair selling price. Last week appeal was made to District Attorney Ezra B. Davis asking an investigation. Comparative tables of feed prices for 1920-21 were submitted. It was asked that the membership of the East Bay Producers' Association and its methods be investigated.

The agitation, in the opinion of Mrs. W. T. Cleverdon, executive of the State Housewives' league, is the principal factor in the reduction.

Death Claims Member of De Molay Order

Ellsworth Earl Todd, son of Mrs. Norma Todd, 5251 Desmond avenue, died at the family home this morning, following a short illness. Young Todd was a charter member of Oakland Council, Order of De Molay, for sons of Masons and their chums. He was the first member of the order to die. It is stated. Funeral services will be held Monday in Red Bluff, where the father, William Q. Todd, was buried in September, 1920.

Despite the action, she told the judge that she still had faith in Youngman.

"I think," Judge O'Brien said, "that this man has you hypnotized."

"It is not hypnotism; it is faith," the girl answered.

COAL MEN SEE
FAMINE UNLESS
BUYING STARTSForced Production in Fall
Will Boost Prices, General View.

Unless the public begins buying its winter coal now there is certain to be an acute shortage before winter sets in, with possibility of a slight increase in prices, Eastbay coal dealers announced today. Present inactivity of the coal mines throughout the United States, light buying with high freight rates in the transportation of fuel were given as the reasons by coal dealers for the threatened famine.

With the public postponing the purchase of the winter supply of coal, coupled with the fact that production this year is below the average last year, there is bound to be an increase in price and a shortage never before experienced by the State, it was predicted by G. A. Cockerton, Oakland coal dealer.

"Miners will not deliver coal to the wholesalers unless they can make immediate delivery," Cockerton said, "which is causing much delay in apportioning the fuel to the different cities. Forced production always brings higher prices. Buy coal now and save the situation."

A. W. Anderson, East Oakland dealer, also advises people to buy their winter coal within the next two weeks or month, else the State will experience a coal famine worse than any years during the war or after. New Chief for Air
Defense Post Here

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Major Henry H. Arnold, chief of the air service of the Ninth Corps Area, today assumed control of the air defense station at the Presidio, which has been under construction for the past year and which cost the government a total of $1,500,000. On telegraphic instructions from the War Department in Washington, Major Arnold officially assumed command of the air defense station, declared by army air service officials to be the largest and most completely equipped station in the world.

Other than to send aloft several of the planes for a celebration flight, no military formalities were observed. Major Arnold last week moved from the Santa Fe building on Market street to the new offices adjacent to the new air station.

BUSINESS WOMAN
PRIZES IT HIGHLY

SUJ another highly esteemed Los Angeles woman testifies to the remarkable powers of Tanlac. This time it is Mrs. J. W. Pickins, of 15 E. 15th Street. Mrs. Pickins owns and operates the book store at 219 Mercantile Place, and can be seen there every day. She says: "Since Tanlac has overcome a bad case of indigestion and nervousness of three or four years standing for me my work here in the store is a pleasure instead of a burden, and I am certainly grateful for the good health it has given me. I was so rundown before I got Tanlac that I felt miserable all the time. I had no appetite and the gas that formed from my undigested food caused my heart to palpitate so that I thought that I had heart trouble. For a time I had a swelling in my legs too, and it was an effort for me to get about and look after my business. My sleep was broken and restless, and I was certainly in need of something to help me."

"After reading where Tanlac had helped another woman who was suffering like I was, I started taking the medicine myself, and it is just wonderful how three bottles have given me perfect relief from the indigestion and bloating. I eat good and hearty at every meal now, the palpitation and nervousness are entirely gone, and I sleep like a child at night. I feel just fine all the time, and I believe Tanlac will help any one else who tries it."

PREDICTIONS OF
COUNTY DIVISION
MADE TO CLUBLongfellow Body of Berkeley
Told Dangers Lurking in Alternative Plan.

BERKELEY, June 25.—Prediction that if Oakland gives a favorable vote to the alternative plan and seeks to form a city and county government, Berkeley will form another city and county of its own and that county division will be the inevitable result, was made last night by J. S. Wright, director of the Longfellow Community Association, following a debate on the consolidation question. "If Oakland takes this step," said Wright, "it is the formation of a city and county government."

"Berkeley will certainly do the same," Members of the club greeted the statement with applause.

Although Joseph Klein, president of the club, admitted that probably a majority of the members were opposed to consolidation, the association refused to take a vote on the question. The meeting was held in the Longfellow school, California and Ward streets.

VOTE WAS REQUESTED.

Klein declared that the Affiliated Berkeley clubs had returned a vote on the consolidation question. Immediate opposition to the registering of the club's sentiments was voiced both by proponents and opponents of the plan. That action be delayed until a charter has been completed by the freeholders was urged by members and the meeting closed with the singing of the club on record in the matter.

Rev. H. H. McKnight, pastor of the San Pablo Community church, made a strong plea against consolidation, pointing to the hidden dangers lurking in the present plans. C. M. Chaplin, representative of a San Francisco-Oakland newspaper, presented a plea for a consolidated city and county government. At the conclusion of his talk, he was asked by members of the audience to tell some of the advantages which might accrue to the city or not tax savings might be effected. He declared that he could not definitely answer those questions until a charter had been framed, declaring that much depends on the instrument now being drafted by the freeholders.

CITY TOLD TO GO SLOW.

"Berkeley has many things that money cannot buy," declared Rev. McKnight, "and the city should go slow. The city remain as it is at present. Berkeley knows what she has now; but she does not know what she will have under this proposed consolidation. In talking of the dangers of the alternative, Rev. McKnight said: "Oakland has 30,000 more voters than all of the rest of the county. The reason for this is that the city cannot have anything that she wants and there is every reason to believe that a split county will follow this consolidation plan."

"Oakland takes this step, then Berkeley certainly has the right to do the same thing," he replied Chaplin.

"That's exactly what will happen," declared Wright. His remarks met with applause from the audience.

LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE.

"Berkeley objects to the plan, and is willing to pay the price to remain what it is at present," declared Wright, after an argument had been advanced by Chaplin to show purported savings. "Berkeley has nothing to gain by consolidation and everything to lose. She might save a nickel here and there under consolidation, but as far as I can see those few nickels won't mean a cent to offset the losses that will come. I can't see that Berkeley will improve her position in any way under a consolidated government."

D. Molander, 1124 Carlton street, although expressing himself in favor of consolidation, objected to a vote being taken on the issue last night.

"We still see the danger," he urged. "We might change our minds about consolidation when we see what is offered us."

Other members of the club expressed similar sentiments as did the president.

"I knew when we started this meeting that the majority were against consolidation," said President Klein. "What voters are for, I don't know. I, for one, am opposed to taking a vote on this question until we know what is definitely offered us. We certainly cannot vote intelligently at the present time."

Chaplin in his talk declared that a consolidated city and county government would afford a solution for all community problems. A public utility district to bring in water, he declared would build up a third government in Alameda county.

About 30 members of the club attended the meeting.

3 Destroyers
To Be Here on July Fourth

Oakland will have three destroyers moored to the municipal dock at the foot of Clay street as a part of the Fourth of July celebration, according to a telegram from the commander in charge of the Pacific fleet, stating that he had assigned three destroyers to Oakland for that time.

Five hundred blue jackets will also take part in the day's events and will participate in the aquatic program on the lake and an athletic program which is being arranged for the afternoon of the Fourth. A free barbecue will be given to all these naval guests of the city at Lakeside park about noon on the Fourth, and following the barbecue the general program of lake sports will commence.

Each airplane to be used in the military battle on Lake Merritt is being especially equipped with parachutes and safety devices. This is made necessary because each plane will carry fireworks and bombs which will furnish an aerial display. It is possible, in the opinion of the aerial committee, that a parachute jump will be made during the sham engagement, as the fireworks are liable to ignite. A parachute exhibition will also be given by Price Miller, formerly with the Royal Air forces, who will jump from the plane at an elevation of approximately 3000 feet.

A patriotic band concert will be given by the Oakland municipal band, under the direction of Paul Steindorff, at Lakeside park during the afternoon of July 4. The committee will announce the band concert program soon. This program will be made up of special patriotic numbers in keeping with the spirit of the day.

For the literary exercises to be held in the Auditorium during the afternoon, the program includes music selections by both orchestra and vocal choruses, reading of the Declaration of Independence and the address of the day by Rev. E. R. Dille. A feature will be an Americanization program by the United States department of labor and the American Legion for the purpose of welcoming new citizens. July Fourth is new voters day in California and the new voters will be welcomed into the ranks of American citizenship. This program is to be held in many cities throughout the state under the auspices of the American Legion posts.

Fireworks display on Lake Merritt at night will excel that of any previous year in both quantity and quality, according to D. F. McClure, chairman of the fireworks committee. The fireworks are free to the public, to be held in the auditorium, will provide entertainment far in advance of any similar entertainment held there in recent years.

MONEY NEEDED
BY PARK BOARD
TO SAVE LAWNSGrass Turning Yellow Due to Lack of Funds to Give Sufficient Water.

The parks of Oakland are in a deplorable condition for lack of funds, and some of the greens are turning yellow because of the need for more water, according to an assertion made today by members of the Board of Park Directors, who have laid their plight before the members of the City Council.

In the past month, several parks have gone so far that they will have to be re-sodded. This is not economical, according to the park directors, as the money saved on water is only doubly spent on re-sodding.

The condition of some of the parks is described as follows:

Mosswood—Has a well, but the pumps have been out of commission for some time. There was not enough money to fix it.

Lakeside—Has wells, but not enough. Some of the lawns are dying up.

Harrison—No wells, little city water in the last month. Lawns are yellow.

San Antonio—Has a well but it is not enough.

DeFreney and other parks are said to be in good condition, though orders have been given at all the parks to keep the water bill as low as possible. Fresh money in the budget means fresh water for the lawns, it is asserted.

In a report to the commissioners, the park board also emphasizes the condition of the gardens. One paragraph says: "Owing to lack of funds, practically no spraying has been done in the past two years, and a great deal of our shrubbery is badly infested with scale and aphids."

The park board seeks money also to resurface the Lakeside Park tennis courts and to bring water to Joaquin Miller park on the heights. The council is reminded that the board has "purchased no music for three years" for the municipal band, and the chairs of the bandmen are about worn out.

"We need money about as badly as any department in the city government," say the board members.

Tuesday's meeting will be the last of this kind, after which Dr. S. H. Butenau goes out of office. His successor has not been named.

THIS UTILITY DOESN'T PAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Operating a public utility when you have only five customers is not profitable but is really a liability, according to John A. McGovern, of Wasco, Kern county. He has petitioned the Railroad Commission to relieve him of his obligations. He is the owner of a certain well and pumping plant and his total revenue from five customers is $8, which he says is wholly disproportionate to the expense of maintaining it.

Magnate in Land Held on
Check Charge

Hugh H. Newell, known to the police under several aliases, who, it is said, owned 1,400,000 acres of land in Brazil, was arraigned this morning before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell on a charge of passing a fictitious check for $50 on the First National Bank of Oakland.

Newell became famous several months ago when his wife, Mrs. Ella Mair Newell, an Oakland hair dresser, sued him for divorce while he was serving a term in a New York prison. Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure awarded his wife the land, which he owned in Brazil. Just prior to his resignation from the position of Superior Judge St. Sure from giving his wife the deed, on the ground that the judge had no jurisdiction "to pass a fictitious check for $50 on the First National Bank of Oakland."

Newell had acted to prevent Judge St. Sure from giving his wife the deed, on the ground that the judge had no jurisdiction "to pass a fictitious check for $50 on the First National Bank of Oakland."

The land is said to be in the heart of the jungles.

He was brought back to this city by Police Inspector John Dufon. The check which he is alleged to have cashed on the bank was made out to Hal Warmack and the check was drawn on the Riverside Savings Bank of Riverside. It was cashed on the bank in 1918 and the police could not find any trace of the man until several months ago. Police Inspector Frank Rorrick, in looking over the circulars from the eastern prison, recognized Newell's picture. A warrant was sworn out against him and forwarded to New York. According to the information that Rorrick has gathered, he is known in the eastern cities under a number of different aliases.

While in Oakland in 1918 he was an official of the New Ellen Potash company. His ball was set at $4000 bonds or $2000 cash.

RARE LINEN OF
WILL BE SOLD

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Linen which the Pacheco family brought to California long ago from Barcelona, Seville and Madrid, a part of the dowry of Mabel, daughter of Romualdo Pacheco, Governor of California in the early seventies when she wed William S. Tevis, are being disposed of at private sale. The Tevis collection of linens is one of the most famous on the Pacific Coast. Romance of the early days when a bride's chest was filled with rich and rare household furnishings is recalled in the disposal of these exquisite bits of linens.

The bride of William Tevis from year to year brought to San Francisco the fads of New York, Paris, London, and generously added to her collection, not only linens but jewelry and antique furniture. Upon her death a few months ago, it was found that the vast amount of things which she had assembled was far too great to be divided among the Will Tevis establishment and that of the four Tevis boys. It was decided to offer a part of them at private sale.
